The Parish Office will be closed this week. Please wait patiently for a response to any communications.

MASSES RESTORED

Thanks be to God, we are happy to announce that the daily 7.30am Mass, from Monday to Friday, will be reinstated, commencing this coming Monday 15th November 2021.

We are also pleased to inform you that the 10am Sunday Mass will be reinstated as from next Sunday, 21st November 2021, the Solemnity of Christ the King.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION 2022

Catechists are desperately needed in order to deliver the 2022 programme.

Please contact any of the priests if you may be able to help. You may also contact Teresa Furtado by email:

trizfurtado@gmail.com.

Please await details, which will be announced here once they are known.

GIFT AID & FINANCE

If you are a tax payer, please consider joining the Gift Aid scheme. We can reclaim tax you have paid, adding 25% to your offering at no extra cost to you!

You may find a Standing Order Form on our parish website: sof_200904.jpg

(724x1024) (stbartsnorbury.co.uk)

Year End Letters are not yet available.

NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

You may request Masses for the Holy Souls using a special Holy Souls envelope. The list you enclose will be placed in a basket beneath the main altar during all Masses said throughout November. Offerings may be included in the same envelope. If you are a member of the Gift Aid Scheme, you will find a box on the envelope to record your Gift Aid number. Please do not approach the sanctuary with your envelope. Instead, please put it through the presbytery door, and not in the collection basket. Going forward, a Mass will be said each month for all those Holy Souls on what we refer to as the November Deceased List.

READINGS & PRAYERS FOR THIS SUNDAY

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

(Jeremiah 29:11, 12, 14)

The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

FIRST READING

(Daniel 12:1-3)

‘At that time, Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth, many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.’

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(Psalm 15:5, 8-11 response v1)

R: Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

1. O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R.
2. And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay. R.
3. You will show me the path of life,
the fulness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand, happiness for ever. R.

SECOND READING

(Hebrews 10:11-14, 18)

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering, over and over again, the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying.

When all sins have been forgiven,
there can be no more sin offerings.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

(Matthew 24:42,44)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Stay awake and stand ready,
because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL (Mark 13:24-32)

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then, too, he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven. Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple, and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So, with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away, all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

‘But, as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.’

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

(Psalm 72:28)

To be near God is my happiness,
to place my hope in God the Lord.

MISSIO

After faithfully serving as local Secretary for MISSIO for 16 years, Cynthia Jouan has made the decision to step down from that rôle at the end of this year. Cynthia would like to express her thanks for your most generous support over the years. Thanks, of course, to all Boxholders. Particular thanks are due to all Promoters, both past and present, for their great effort in the collection and distribution of boxes.
